Important note by the STADLER GmbH according to the information obligation to the legal Transparency Regulations beginning March 10, 2021: We would like to point out, that we do not broker any insurance investment products ourselves. Therefore, the corresponding disclosure obligations, according to the Transparency Regulations, do not apply to us.

As insurance brokers, we offer consultancy. The remuneration for our consultation, brokering and support activity - called brokerage - is borne by the insurance enterprise according to unwritten law. The brokerage is an integral part of the insurance premium. Anything deviating from this must be agreed expressly between us and the client. In particular in the brokering of so-called net products, a separate remuneration provision is agreed as a rule, obligating the client to pay the remuneration. Net products are products for which the brokerage remuneration has not been contained in the insurance premium. In addition, we can consult customers who are not consumers on a fee basis. Our enterprise does not receive any remuneration in the form of other benefits.

Our enterprise does not have any direct or indirect holdings of more than 10% of the voting rights or the capital of an insurance enterprise. No insurance enterprise or parent company of an insurance enterprise has a direct or indirect holding of more than 10% of the voting rights or the capital of our enterprise.
